2011-2012 School Year Theme Verse:

Isaiah 40:31 (NIV)

See You at the Pole

The 2011 See You at the Pole™ theme is a promise from Scripture that is one of the most popular and quoted throughout history by believers.

Whenever two or three of you come together in my name, I am there with you.

Matthew 18:20 CEV.

This simple verse is a comforting and encouraging promise from Jesus Himself that helps us to know He is always with us. When we gather and agree together, placing Him first, He is there. And when God and His people converge for prayer, lives change!

On Wednesday, September 28, from 8:15a–8:45a, GATHER at Fairview's flagpole. PRAY for your school, friends, families, and world. ASK God to REVEAL Who He is to your campus. Pray for AWAKENING.

Back to School Night and PTF Ice-Cream Social

Thursday, September 29, at 6:30p is our Annual Back to School Night and PTF Ice-Cream Social. We will meet in the Auditorium for ice cream and a short PTF meeting where you can hear about opportunities to get support hours, and then it's off to visit the classrooms. In the classroom you will be given the opportunity to see your student's work, look at what your child will be learning and speak with his/her teacher. This is a great time to invite a friend who might be considering Fairview as a school for their children. We hope you can be there to connect with other school families! Volunteers are needed to help set up, serve ice cream and clean up. If you are available to help, please contact Jennifer Laible at 206.282.4192 or jenlaible@gmail.com.

from the West Wing

Memories were once again made this weekend. What a wonderful, blessed time we had celebrating at our first ever "Homecoming Weekend." It was wonderful to see once again former students, parents and friends. There were so many that worked so hard to put this event together and I am so grateful for each and every one.

I enjoyed the entire week-end, but I must admit that my favorite part was the Convocation Service on Sunday morning. As I was preparing for the day, I didn't think I would be nervous, but as the time approached I found that I had the nervous feeling in the pit of my stomach. I'm not sure why, exactly, but perhaps it was because I wanted everything to be "perfect." I shouldn't have worried at all; everything was just what I had hoped it would be and more. For those of you that were there, I hope you felt the same way.

There were two parts of the service

"Tell your children about it. Let them tell their children. And let their children tell it to those who live after them."

Joel 1:3 NIV

that had special meaning for me. The first was when the students sang our theme song for the year, "Like Eagles." As they sang "And I will soar on wings like eagles, Held by the hand of God" with such enthusiasm and sincerity, my heart was touched and I found I had a catch in my throat. The second part of the service that meant so much to me was the two messages; one given by Pat Burris, former principal, and the other by Jim Lyon, former pastor. I had asked each of them to share some of the history of Fairview and had also given each of them our theme verse for the year, Isaiah 40:31. Each of them, in their own unique way, took the history of Fairview and beautifully wove the scripture throughout their message. I was once again inspired as each retold how faithful to Fairview God has been through the years. How He miraculously guided the congregation to the building and within days allowed the church to purchase this site. How He had laid the groundwork many years in advance for a school to be established and how He provided not only curriculum but students for the very first year. I was challenged to "Soar" into the future as God continues to direct.

I believe that God wants us to remember the past. The Israelites were instructed to retell the stories of deliverance to each generation. But the purpose of retelling the story is not so we will dwell in the past. The purpose is to help us remember the faithful guidance of God so we can move forward during the present and into the future. As I reflect today on what transpired this past week-end, I have renewed strength for what God has for us, not only today, but for many tomorrows to come.
